DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(1) electric field distorting means formed on a boundary of the two domains [claims 1-9];

(2) electric field distorting means being formed parallel to the boundary between the two domains [claims 10-20].

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim appears to be generic.

If Applicant elected species (1), a further election of one of the following sub-species is required:

a) the electric field distorting means comprises at least one slit [claim 2];

b) the electric field distorting means comprises a protrusion [claims 3-4].

If Applicant elected species (2), a further election of one of the following sub-species is required:

a) the electric field distorting means is formed at the pixel electrode [claim 11];

b) the electric field distorting means is formed at the common electrode [claim 12];

c) the electric field distorting means comprises at least one slit [claim 13];

d) the electric field distorting means comprises a protrusion [claims 14-18].

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
